Baseball Honors, Activities, and Achievements: My passion is baseball. I started playing organized baseball at the age of three. I played on local teams through the age of eight when I tried out for a spot and played on a travelling tournament team for 4 years that won several tournaments throughout northwest Ohio. I also played in the WOBL league winning the championship in 2014 and placing as runners up in 2017. I tried out for the Locos Express and received a spot in 2018 on the 13 U team. I tried out and have been a team member every year since then playing in several tournaments including the Hoosier Classic, the Wolves, the Worthington Wood Bat, and PBR Tournaments. I have trained with Dayton Dragons Pitching Coach Brian Garman at his Intent City Training. I was recently named to the 2021 PBR Preseason PBR Division 4 2nd Team. In June, I will be attending the Michigan Top Prospect (Invite Only).
